Vice President's Report

Thanks to everyone involved in the Fun Run.

President's Report

The Fun Run was profitable this year. There were almost 200 participants. Great job to all the volunteers who worked on the musical. Great job to all the directors. We need nominees for officers for next year. JoAnn will send out an email.

Committee Report

None

Director's Report

Newsletter was distributed and sent home with students. It was distributed to all admin and principals yesterday.

Thanks to all the musical volunteers.

The scholarship applications will be out soon through the counselors' office.

UIL One Act Play will be scenes from Bus Stop by William Inge.

The Fine Arts Ball, themed Hollywood nights, will be on March 6th. King/Queen candidates are in the works.

The Theatre Program Brochure for course selection/pre registration will be out soon through the counselors' office.

DVDs of Bye Bye Birdie are available for $20 each.

Old Business

The audit of our books needs to be done by April 1, 2010. Wayne will work on getting auditors.

New Business

Budget cutting items were discussed. Bidding for outside vendors was also discussed.

We will need to feed the kids when we host the area contest. They will bring their own food for rehearsal Saturdays. Any other meals will be discussed in the future.

Wayne asked if anyone would make a motion to disband the booster club... no one made the motion.

The next meeting will be on March 1st at 7PM.

Motion to close the meeting was made by Cheryl Curtis and seconded by Patti Swanson. Motion passed unanimously. Meeting adjourned at 7:55 PM.
